

Molymet's quality management, production, marketing, and administration are focused on operational excellence and satisfying customer requirements in the long term.

To achieve this goal, all members of the Company are committed to quality and the continuous improvement of efficiency, productivity, and reliability of its processes, based on the application and development of its Quality Management System.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, consisting of a stylized 'E' followed by a long, sweeping horizontal stroke.

Edgar Pape A.

CEO